

LUCA

Chef Johnny Fontanili

A young chef of Italian origin, Chef Fontanili was born in the northwestern coastal region of Liguria. He spent many of his formative years in Tuscany, where the flavors and essences of both regions influenced his culinary style. His passion for cooking was inherited from his mother and grandmother; both have been his main inspirations from the very beginning.

Chef Fontanili is characterized as a chef who is proud of his roots and passionate about his profession; it gives him the chance to enjoy a new and different experience every day.

In 2006 he found in Mexico the ideal location for combining traditional recipes with native local products. Today, his principal satisfaction comes from pleasing diners and sharing the riches of his homeland with others.
